I Officer Hernandez 338 along with Lynch 394, made location at 604 Westwood in response to a neglect call.
Upon making location, we noted many “no soliciting” signs, and a “dangerous dog” sign on the fence belonging to the house. The fence itself was also fully hidden with a blanket, hiding the backyard from street view. Due to the porch being roped off, we knocked on the fence to make contact with the resident.

The resident, Chris Carlin (was aggressive upon opening the door, asking if we had a warrant, and swearing profusely at us for harassing him and for approaching his house with “intimidation tactics.” He commented on Cadet Lynch’s catchpole being used to threaten him in the form of a “weapon” and insisted on taking down names, numbers, and badge numbers of myself and other figures of authority that he could speak to about the incident, and any/all future incidents with Animal Care Services. He stated we are “nice people” and that we are being used as tools for his harassment.

In activity notes, it appears that Mr. Carlin might believe that ACS as a whole is “out to get him,” and appears to be actively aggressive towards first responders, having already put in reports regarding officers doing notes while parked near his house (ref. A26-498250).
